INVITATION

Workshop Reporting Refugees, Migrants, Ethnicity

Zagreb, Croatia

26-27 May 2017

Dear colleagues,

The European Federation of Journalists (EFJ) has launched together with 6 partners from across Europe an 18-month project "Media Against Hate" funded by the European Commission (DG Justice). It aims to counter hate speech and discrimination in the media, both on and offline, by promoting ethical standards, while maintaining respect for freedom of expression.

In the framework of this project, the EFJ will organise together with the Croatian Journalists' Association (CJA) a workshop in Zagreb, Croatia, on 26-27 May 2017. It will be focused on reporting topics concerning refugees, migrants and ethnicity.

Due to limited spaces available, we can only accept 25 participants for this workshop. Please register as soon as possible to express your interest and we will try to accommodate your need.

Working language for the workshop will be English.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE

The registration is open to journalists covering topics relevant to the workshop, from EU countries + Iceland and Lichtenstein.

Please keep in mind that we aim to promote gender balance and youth representation both for participants and speakers.

COSTS

Flight and trains (in economic class for no more than 350 EUR), accommodation (2 nights, single room). Taxis and private vehicles will not be reimbursed.

Reimbursement will be made only upon presentation of all relevant original invoices and boarding cards.

REGISTRATION

Please submit the registration form via this link <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/V2CPJLZ> before Monday, 3 April.

Please do not make any travel arrangement until you have received confirmation from the CJA regarding your participation.

Additional information regarding the full programme, travel and accommodation arrangements will follow.

Should you need any further information regarding the project, please contact Camille Petit (camille@europeanjournalists.org) or Monika Valečić (mvalecic@hnd.hr).

We are looking forwards to seeing you in Zagreb.

Best regards,

Ricardo Gutiérrez
