Thursday 2 February, 9.30 AM Press Club Brussels Europe

Press Club Brussels Europe – Rue Froissart 95, 1040 Brussels

Contact: Tim Francis - t.francis@unesco.org, +33 (07) 83 27 79 97

Programme

9.30 AM Welcome and coffee
10 AM Opening remarks– Guy BERGER, Director, Division for Freedom of Expression and Media Development, UNESCO
10.30 AM Round Table “Terrorism in the media: Avoiding sensationalism and fear”
12 PM End of event
Beginning of afternoon event organised by the French Embassy to Brussels and the Press Club Brussels:
« Terrorisme, radicalisme, quels rôles pour les médias ? »
(“Terrorism and radicalisation: the role of the media”)

About the publication

Targeted towards journalists and media professionals, this handbook is designed to provide key information and encourage reflection on the way that terrorism is covered in the media.

Based upon advice from leading institutions and experts, and filled with examples, it explores the professional challenges and ethical dilemmas inherent in terrorism reporting, and poses fundamental questions about what the impact of current treatment may be on social cohesion and the prevalence of fear in society.

Available languages: English, French